Current social networks don't have great tools for dispute resolution. They're a combination of anarchy (people yelling) and tyranny (arbitrarily deplatforming).

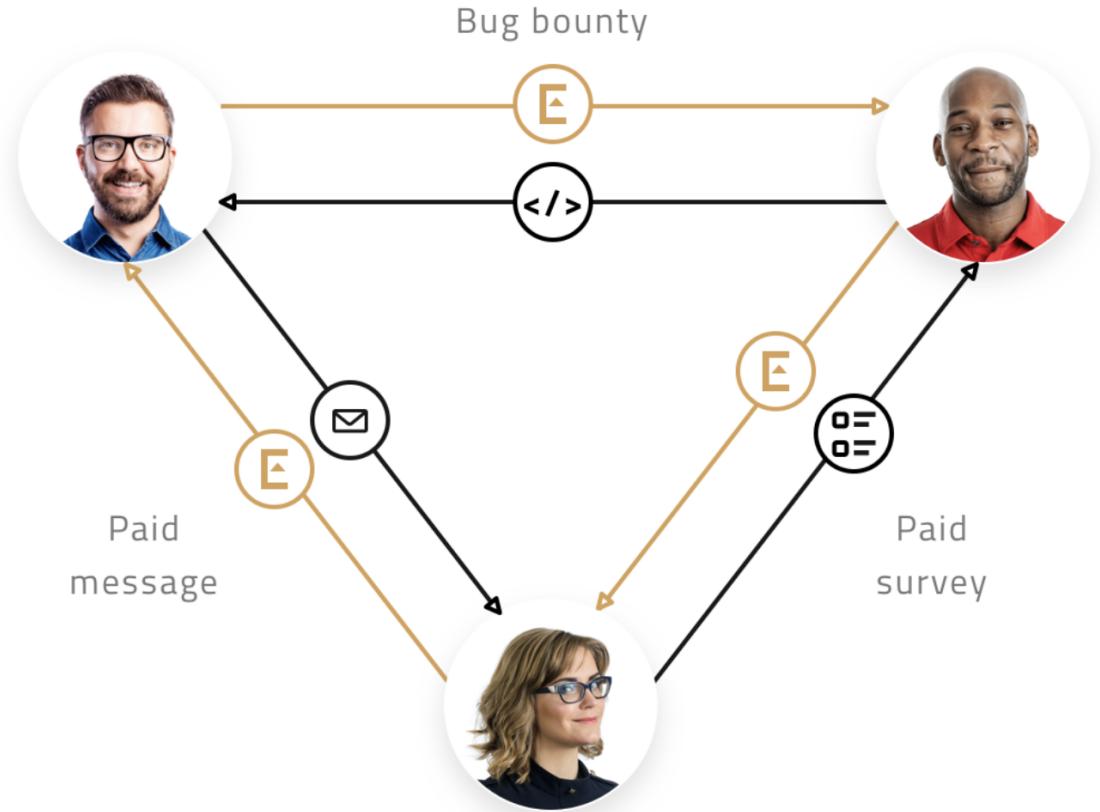

An alternative approach is a global moderator hierarchy. In the event of a dispute, the lowest common ancestor mediates.

Lowest Common Ancestor for Node 9 and Node 11 is Node 2

CONGRESS, JULY 4, DECLARATION BY THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA GENERAL CONGRESS ASSEMBLED

When in the Course of human Events, it becomes necessary for one People to dissolve the Political Bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the Powers of the Earth, the separate and equal Station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them; a decent Respect to the Opinions of Mankind requires that they should declare the Separation.

We hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness.—That to secure these Rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just Powers from the Consent of the Governed, that whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these Ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its Foundation on such Principles, and organizing its Powers in such Form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that they should warn the People beforehand against the danger to which they may be exposed; and accordingly all Experience hath shewn, that Mankind are more disposed to suffer, while Evils may be suffered than to right themselves by abolishing the Forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long Train of Abuses and Usurpations, evinces a Design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their Right, it is their Duty, to throw off such a Government, and to provide for their future Security. Such has been the patient Sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the Necessity which Rendereth it Indispensable to a Change of their System of Government. The History of the present King of Great-Britain is a History of repeated Assassinations of the most eminent Members of his own Body; of attempts by him to subvert the Laws and Constitution of these States, even before their Adoption; of his refusing to pass Laws of immediate and pressing Importance, unless suspended in their Operation till he had perverted some Assembly or other to a dissolution; of his dissolving Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly Firmness his Invasions on the Rights of the People; of his exciting国内叛乱, and employing every Treachery, to subvert the Legislative Powers, inciting those People to resist the Laws, and to put them in possession of Arms; of his sending armed Forces among these States, for the purpose of oppressing their Citizens, committing the most wanton Massacres among them, destroying their Towns and Families, and rendering the inhabitants desolate; of his sending Armed Piratical Forces to our Seas, to commit Piracy & Murder upon the most peaceable Subjects; of his Infamous Campaigns against the Southern Colonies, and his efforts to subvert the Liberties of the People of those Colonies; and finally, of his attempting to prove that it was the law of Nations, or the law of God, that he might do all these Evils to the American People.

He has compelled us to defend ourselves, in a War, where we never offended him; and he has affording his Aid and Encouragement to the enemies of America, and assisting them in their Hostile Attacks on her Frontiers. He has, for years, past, prepared for Invasion, by sending into our Country large Numbers of Armed and Disciplined Troops, and委派了他自己的代理人 to incite the Indians to hostilities, and to give them every assistance in his power to destroy us. He has planned invasions of the United States, and has sent Agents among us to disunite us, and to give him information of the movements of our Troops, and to procure for him the services of our traitorous fellow-Citizens. He has endeavoured to bring on the American people, in every possible way, the War of Rebellion, and Civil War, and has supported it, by every means in his power, and has given his Aid and Encouragement to the traitors who have instigated it, and has protected them, and has given them every assistance in his power to sustain it. All that they have done and suffered through the centuries has been to help them to reach this goal, which has now been achieved. They have been through many trials and tribulations, but they have emerged stronger and more determined than ever to work for their freedom. Their efforts have been rewarded, and they now stand as a free people, with a bright future ahead of them. This is a moment of great pride and joy for all Indians, and it is a moment of great hope for the world at large.
